

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. We, as tax payers and private citizens of Indiana want our privacy protected. We feel that the telephone is for the discretionary use of the person who pays for its use. At my discretion (I pay the phone bill) I choose to be on the NO CALL list because I do not want my phone line clogged with activity and my personal life interrupted by unsolicited businesses. If I wanted to get those calls I would remove myself from the list. This is America and that is my choice. Please help protect it.

Thank you,
